V. RAVE

A. ‘Alert’ - Quickly and reliably send messages including desktop notifications.

- B. 'Collaborate' - Tactical incident collaboration for both planned and unplanned events.
- C. 'Guardian' - A custom branded personal safety app to connect and engage communities wherever they are.

- Chief Acosta; review of existing RAVE alert notification system.
- Joy G.; shared what RAVE is, how notifications are sent out and the new features in upgraded higher Ed CalOES package; Collaborate, Desktop Notifier, and Guardian phone app.
- Chief Acosta; encouraged group to look at the new RAVE features.
- David Marasco; asked if the contract was a renewal and asked about the costs.
- Susan Cheu; the state contract offset the renewal and add on cost of features.
- David Marasco; asked what partners are needed for the new feature set up.
- Chief Acosta; most likely ETS and possibly some Senate groups. Will need to dive into the new features first to see what else is needed.

VI. Transformational Policing Model: Bridging Racial Divide

- A. Wednesday, November 9, 2022 at De Anza hosted by Derrick E. Felton (Instructor of Psychology & Dr. Elvin T. Ramos (Dean of SSH)
- B. Dr. Tommy Tunson; Kern County Author, Professor, Public Safety Chief of Police Ret.
<https://www.tommytunson.com/> . Author of "C.O.P. The Color of Power: The Odyssey of a Black Cop"
- C. Dr. Tunson examines the historical analysis of police distrust in American society and recent conflicts between police and communities of color. Presentation provides awareness into the sensitive and polarizing issues of racial diversity, equity, and inclusion. Finally, this session will provide information on how the Transformational Policing Model (TPM) can be a platform, content, and a possible path to restoring trust and healing.
  - Chief Acosta; participated in the Momentum series session. Similar topic to the 8-course PD had hosted however the TPM course is much more in depth, much like a college course. In discussion with the team on interest for the course.
  - David M.; asked if other agencies would participate.
    - Chief Acosta; yes, that is the goal
  - Joy G; shared video of Dr. Tunson interview and his TPM program.
  - Chief Acosta; noted the duration of the course is 52 hours that would equal 104 hours in police work due to covering shifts. Would potentially be costly. Liked Dr Tunson's unique professional approach and his positive impact on law enforcement and the community.

VII. California Community Colleges, Campus Climate and Public Safety

- A. On October 25, 2022, the Board of Governors of the CCC released revisions to Title 5 related to Campus Climate and Public Safety to the Secretary of State. These revised regulations will take effect on November 24, 2022 and will apply to all public safety services and public safety personnel, whether provided by district employees, or by contract with private third parties or other public agencies.

1. Policing Philosophy
  2. Governance Requirements
  3. Hiring & Training
  4. Impact on State Apportionment
- Chief Acosta; reviewed CCC title 5 regulations for public safety. Highlighted that the PD already meets most if not all of the regulations and gave examples of each. Ideas on improvement of survey and community input can be implemented.
  - Joy G.; shared list of the title 5 recommendations online
  - Susan Cheu; noted that the due date of these regulations to be implemented is tight, 2 weeks' notice, for November 24th .
